The Class of 1965

Pearl B. King

We, the Class of 1965, dedicate our yearbook to you, Pearl B. King and Kathryn R. Swalm, for your many years of unselfish service to Moorestown Senior High School. Your selfless devotion to education has opened our minds, stimulated our thoughts, and broadened our horizons.

Our graduation marks the end of many profitable hours as your students, but we hope it marks also the beginning of many years of warm friendship. Along with this expression of our gratitude, we wish you many productive years of health and happiness.

Loyalty to Moorestown High School—

May this our watchword be,
With our motto never failing,

“Seize the opportunity.”

We will love her halls and classrooms,
Nor honor shall they lack,
While old Moorestown stands defender
Of the Yellow and the Black.

From the days of Freshman trials

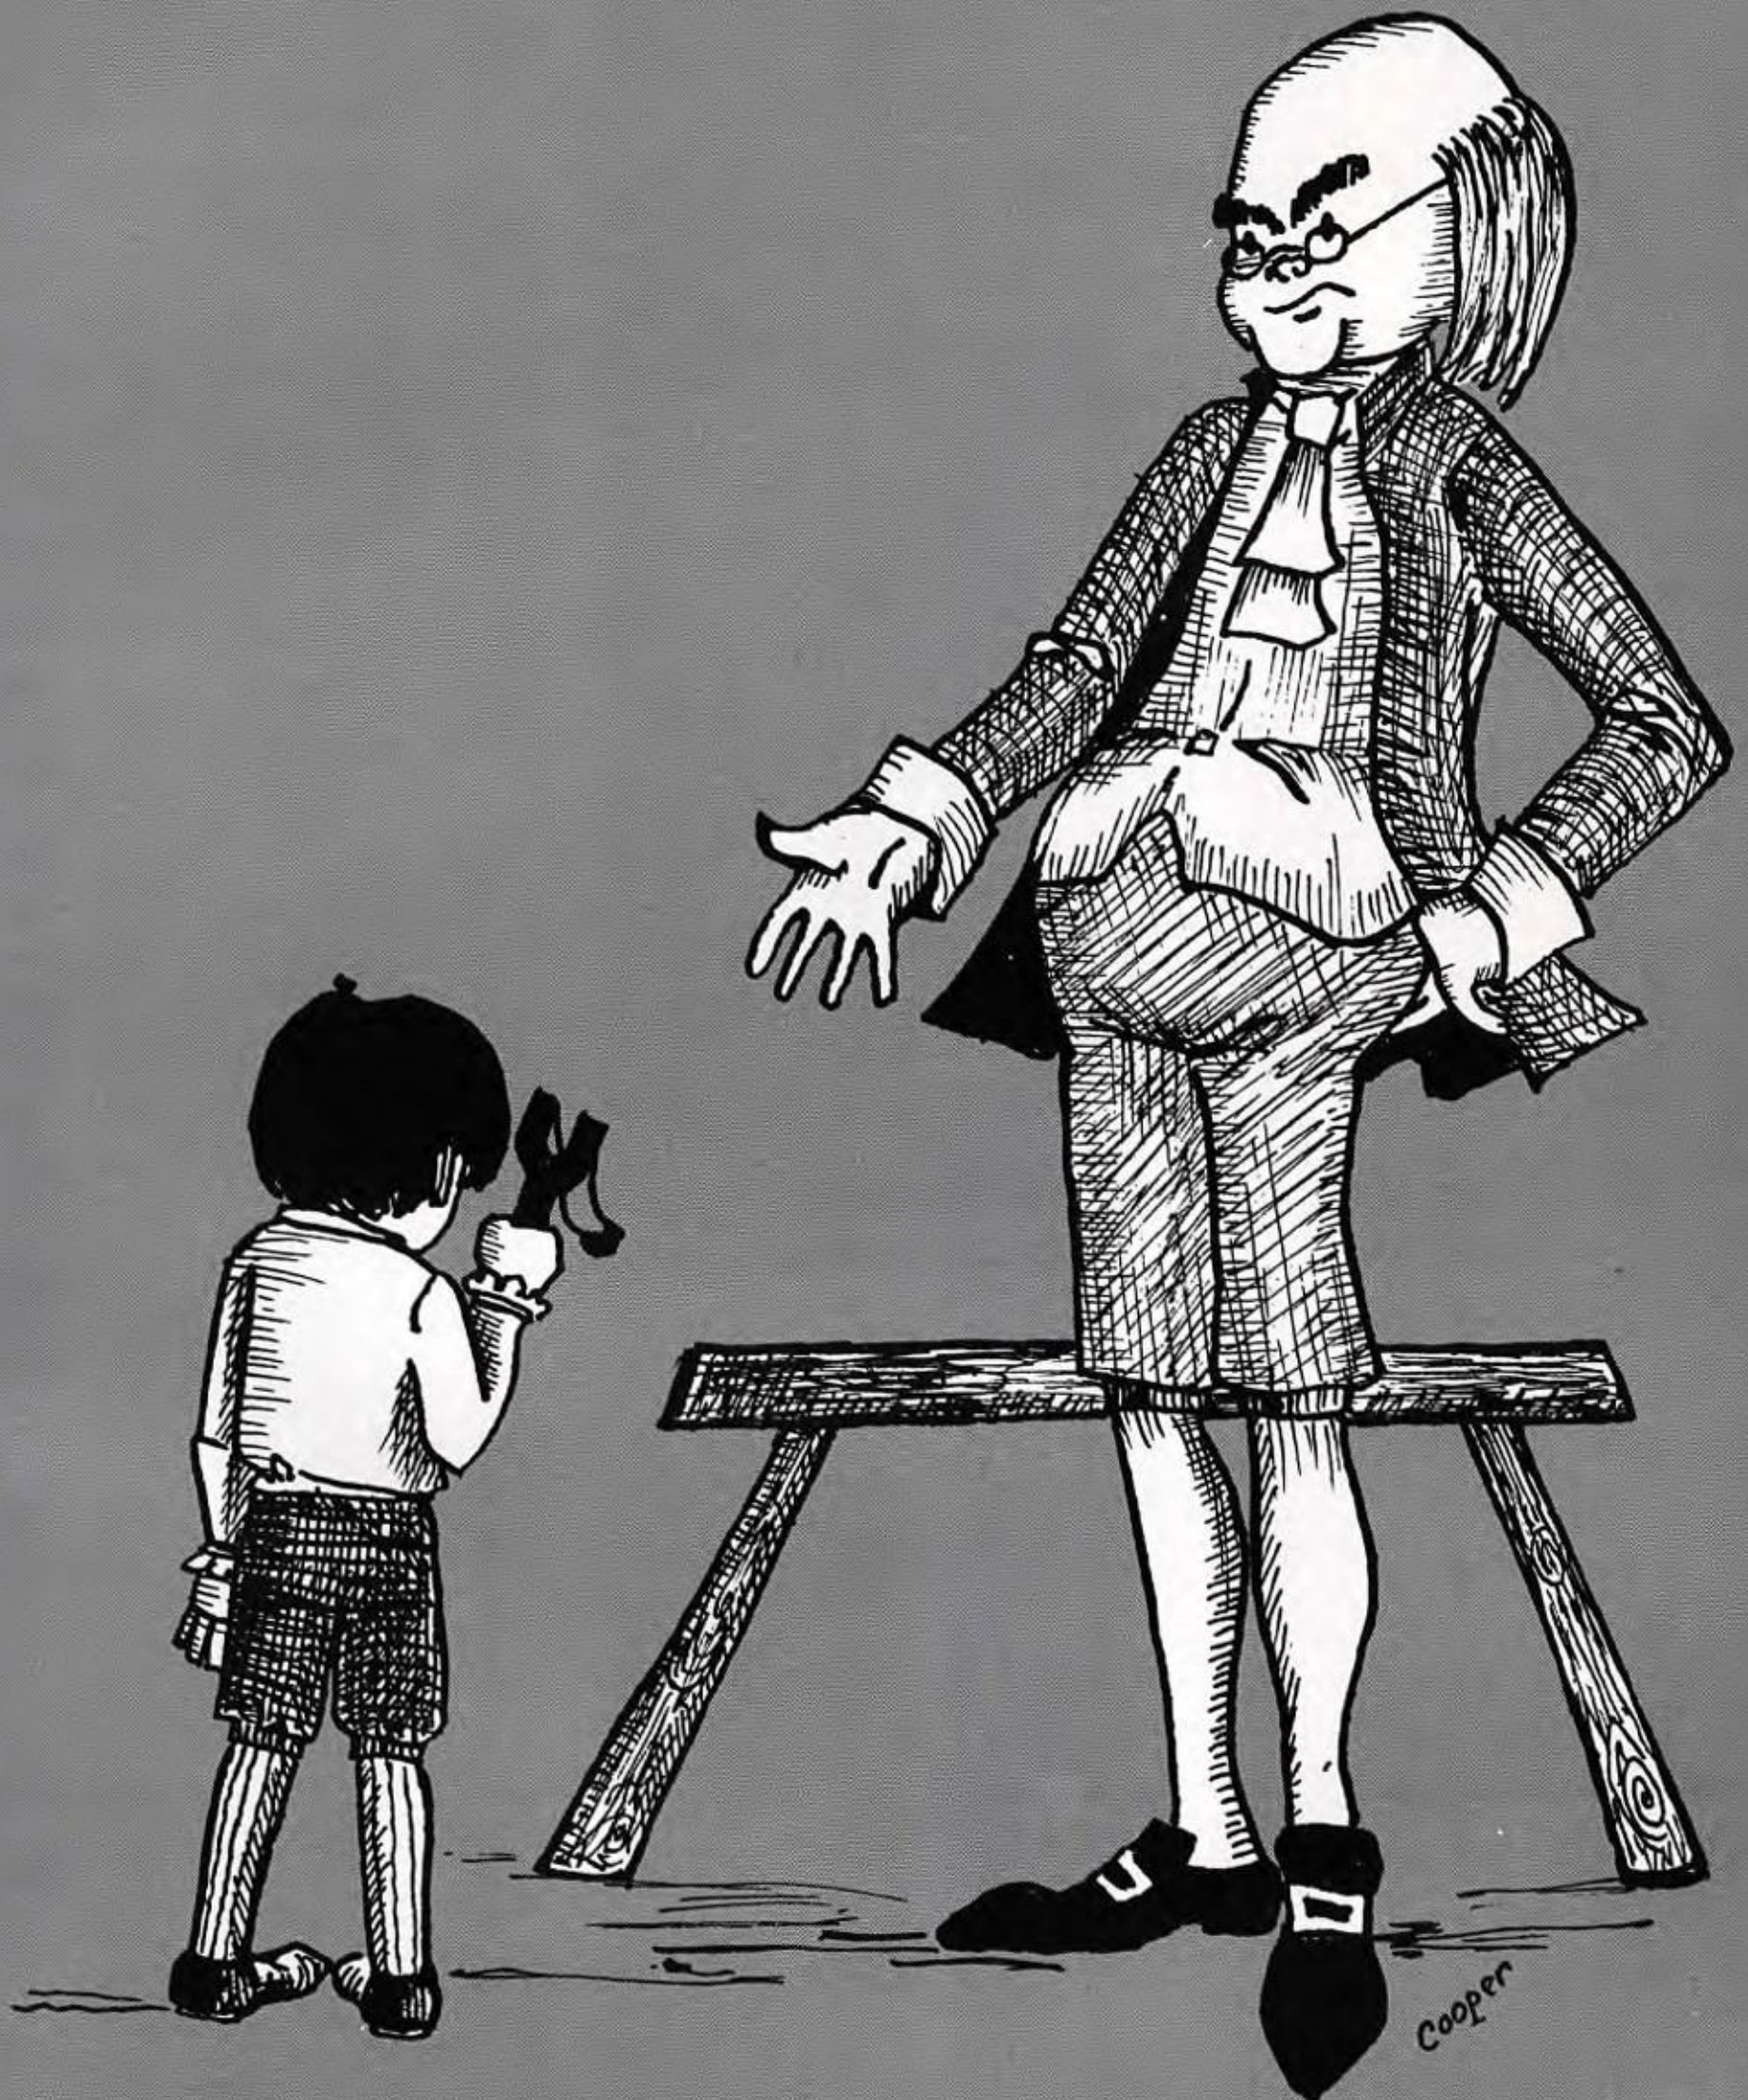

To the Senior’s final goal,

We will strive to make for Moorestown
One long, long honor roll.

When we win athletic victories

On the football field or track,
Still we’ll work for dear old Moorestown
And the Yellow and the Black.

Our senior high school bears the nickname "Quakers". Who were the Quakers . . . these people who have left a lasting mark on Moorestown and our school?

The Quakers historically have stood for many things . . . freedom; opportunity for all . . . universal education. Over the years, they have been much concerned in promoting the belief that a man ought to be judged on the basis of his own merits . . . and not on the basis of race, creed or color. Today, the barriers that for generations have separated man from his fellow man are coming down all over our land.

As you move out to new and expanded areas of responsibility, may the example set by the Quakers of old guide each of you toward lives of useful service both to God and your fellow men, free from the bonds of prejudice and hatred.

Since the theme of this yearbook is the Quaker heritage of Moorestown, we are reminded that we have been observing the Tercentenary of the State of New Jersey. It is our hope that you have now become well acquainted with the rich heritage of your community and your state. We hope that you will find real happiness and success in all you do and also that you will do your very best to provide for succeeding generations opportunities which are even better than those which have been your legacy from the generations which preceded you.

Boys State and Girls State, both sponsored by the American Legion, and Girls Citizenship Institute, sponsored by the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs, are week-long conferences held at Rutgers University and Douglass College in June. The basic idea of the conferences is that an informed citizen is an effective one. Delegates are made better aware of the functions and purposes of our state government.

The alternates, although they did not actually attend, are presumed to have been ready to rush to New Brunswick to take over in case a delegate would be unable to carry on his duties.

Junior Rotarians

The Junior Rotarians and Junior Y's Men represent the school at meetings of these two of the many service clubs which do much for the local welfare. Each student attends weekly luncheon meetings for a month. The representatives meet local leaders in various fields and learn about the work of the clubs.

D.A.R. Pilgrim

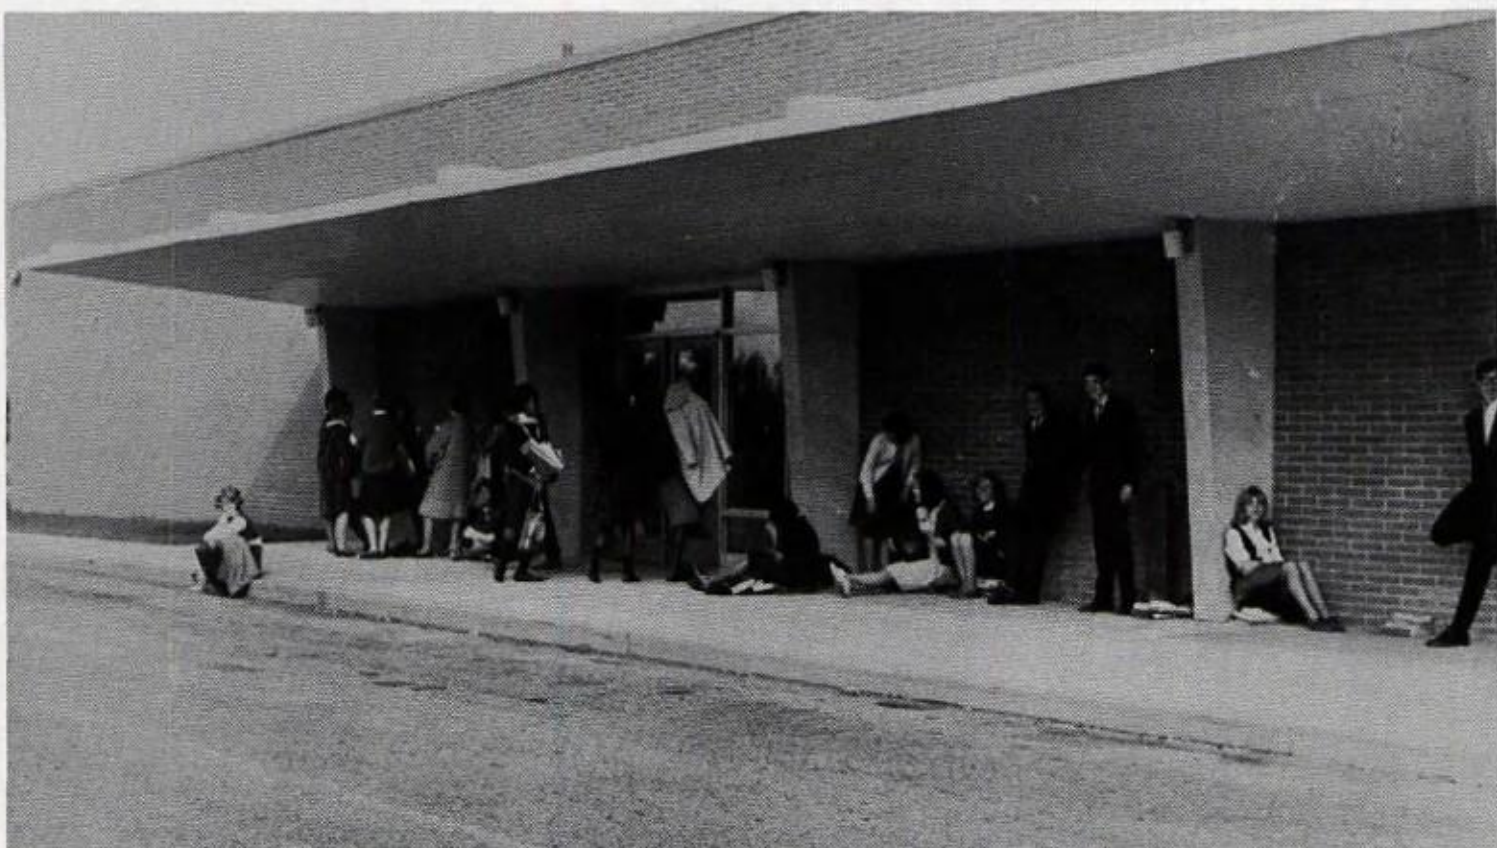

Dorothy Roberts, this year's D.A.R. Pilgrim, was nominated by her classmates and selected by the faculty as the Senior Class's most outstanding citizen. The D.A.R. Pilgrim competes for statewide honors and represents the school at a convention in Trenton, where she has the opportunity to see the state government in action.

N.O.M.A.

Linda Baith and Carolyn Clark represented Moorestown Senior High School this year in the National Office Management Association. Delegates from a large number of schools meet monthly to increase their acquaintance with the business world. Businesses and industries in the area co-operate with the program by letting students see and hear about their operations.

Entertaining a tennis player . . . en español.

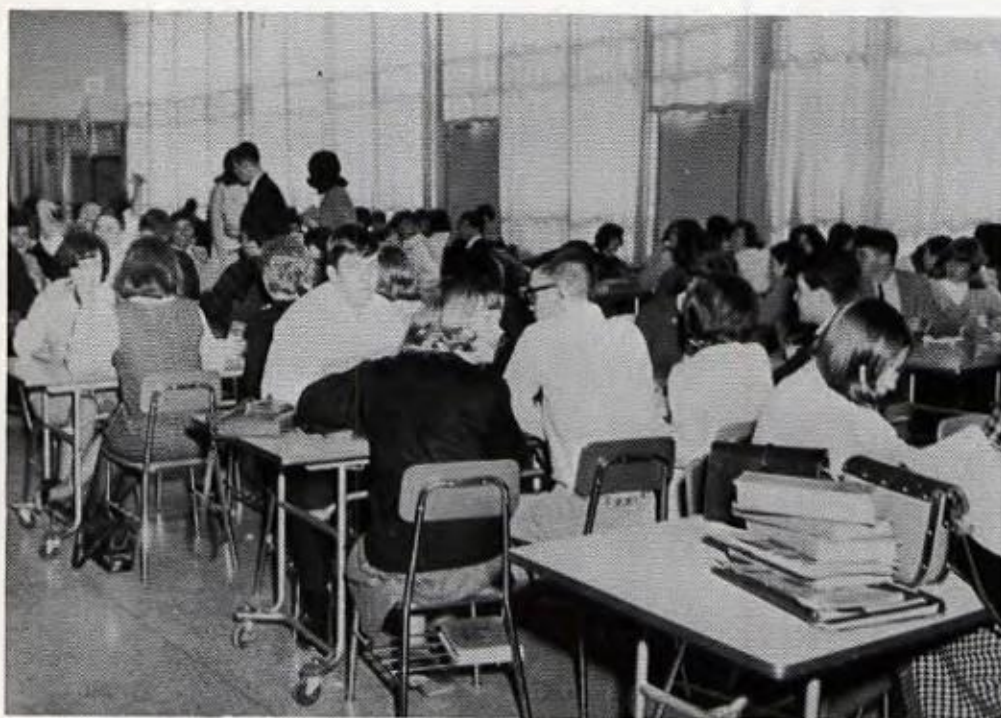

A firsthand knowledge of American education . .

Learning about revered American customs.

Three Moorestown students spent several weeks in Mexico in the summer of 1964, living with Mexican families and becoming thoroughly acquainted with the Mexican culture which lies next door to us and yet seems so foreign. Lynne Cooper and Kathleen Carson lived in Mexico City and Chris Umberger stayed in nearby Pachuca. During December and January, the Mexican girls with whom Lynne and Kathy stayed returned the visit. Irma Mondragon stayed with Kathy, and Lenica Valle stayed with Lynne. Because of unforeseen circumstances, Chris's exchange was unable to come, and Arturo Deloya from Acapulco came in his place.

Founded in 1927, the Student Council is the legislative branch of Moorestown's student government. Its decisions are enforced by the Monitor Club and tried by the Student Court. Student Council has sponsored many noteworthy activities this year, such as the Tennis Players Program, the Student-Faculty basketball game, the student tutoring program, and other lesser accomplishments too numerous to mention. These activities are proof of the Council's respected influence in student life.

International Tennis Stars Visit Moorestown

"Are you ready?"

"It tastes like the high-priced spread."

"Yes, I like American girls."

From Wednesday, January 13, through Saturday, January 16, Moorestown was host to 48 boys who had participated in the Sunshine Cup Tennis Matches at Miami Beach, Florida. Representing about 30 nations, the tennis players visited various high schools from Florida to New Jersey in a two week tour of the East Coast. The trip, sponsored by the People to People Sports Committee, was planned to introduce the young ambassadors to "the American way of life." Each boy was the house guest of a Moorestown High School student, and activities were planned to allow time for the families and guests to become well acquainted.

Student reaction to the visit was very favorable. Sampling comments included "marvelous experience," "completely worthwhile," "helped us to a better understanding of other cultures." The tennis players also appreciated the chance to meet American youths and families, and they responded enthusiastically to Moorestown's hospitality.

"Comprendes?"

Club membership is limited to students who are currently taking Spanish, are listed on the honor roll, and wish to become acquainted with the best in the literature of Spain and Spanish America to broaden their appreciation of Spanish American and comparable world literature.

Each year the members decide on the general objective for the year. The meetings during 1964-1965 have been devoted to Latin American literature. Monthly meetings have centered around Indian and colonial influences, the poetry of the Western Hemisphere, the "Modernistic" poets, the novel, and the short story in Mexico, Argentina, Uruguay, and Chile.

Head Coach George Masters' 1964 football squad boasted a proud record of seven wins and two losses. In the Burlington County Scholastic League, the Moorestown Quakers finished the season with an honorable second place. The squad as a whole was marked for its high morale and team spirit. Led by our six All-County players, Chris Dunn, Bruce Soboleski, Bill Bendel, Tom Fitzgerald, Dave Close, and Randy Holmes, the Quakers shut out five of their nine opponents. At the traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Mt. Holly, the scoreboard registered a 39-0 romp. Moorestown was further honored at the conclusion of the season by being awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy.

Competition proved somewhat stiffer this year as the Quakerettes met with defeat three times during the 1964 league season. Wins over Palmyra, Pennsauken, Haddonfield, Lenape and Mount Holly enabled them to gain a well-earned third place. Casey Carson and Barbie Develin led the scoring attack. Team members displayed their natural ability through skill and an earnest determination for team play. Although the starting team consisted mainly of seniors, Mrs. Lehman is left with an experienced team for the 1965 hockey season.

Coach Armstrong and the Quakers experienced another on-again, off-again year, compiling an over-all record of eleven wins, twelve losses and a league record of seven wins, seven losses. Larry Brown paced the Quaker attack with 433 points, averaging 18.9 per game. Hal Phillips contributed 345 points, averaging 15.1 and 246 rebounds, an average of 10.8 per game.

Highlights of the season included Moorestown's second straight Diamond Christmas Tournament championship, a thrilling 70-68 win over arch rival Burlington, and a short but exciting battle in the N.J.S.I.A.A. Tournament. Losing to J. F. Kennedy by 15 points in the fourth quarter of the first game, the Quakers rallied to tie the game with one second remaining. In the second overtime period, Bob Johnston sank a jump shot with five seconds remaining to give the Quakers the most amazing comeback victory in many years. In the second tournament game, Moorestown overpowered Burlington County champion, Riverside, for the first three quarters, but finally succumbed to the Rams in the final five minutes.

Wrestling

In its first year as an organized sport at M.S.H.S., wrestling was considered a Junior Varsity sport, although the boys did participate in some Varsity scrimmages. The season was appropriately started with an informative demonstration in assembly.

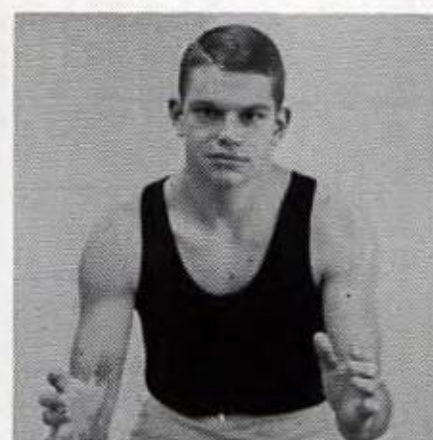

Outstanding records for the season were held by J. Little, M. Little, W. Stout, D. Williams, and S. Williams. Gold medals were awarded to M. Little and S. Williams for placing first in their weight divisions, and a silver medal to P. O'Kane for a second place, at the Kennedy games held at Glassboro.
